We asked the children which verse to use for this newsletter and they chose Acts 17:11. It seemed appropriate as we have been studying and preparing to share the Word at other churches. We have officially hit the deputation trail. As of right now our family has presented in 5 churches and our schedule is full until November.

Brian has been able to teach Sunday school, preach, share CBM and our calling. Brenda has taught children's Sunday school, ministered through piano, and shared her testimony. Amanda and Luke have enjoyed singing special music and playing piano for offertories. Nathanael and Rebekah have enjoyed visiting new places and meeting new people. It has been a privilege to meet new people, make new friends and in this process gain a larger perspective on what God is doing. This path isn't always easy but we are finding opportunities to have fun together. We have enjoyed swimming pools, playing baseball, church playground equipment, and parks where we can picnic and play tag.

We were also able to attend the Adventureland Youth Rally with the youth group from our church where we were encouraged to have a dynamic faith and not a dead or demonic faith. We continue to be blessed by the prayers and encouragement from pastors, both old and new friends, and family.

Fulfilling the great commission together,

Brian, Brenda, Amanda, Luke, Nathanael and Rebekah Krueger
